

Press Release: A Glamorous Celebration at COPRA's Annual AWARDS Lunch

On Wednesday, May 22nd, the beauty industry's elite gathered at the enchanting Savoy Hotel for COPRA's highly anticipated annual AWARDS Lunch. Over 400 influential insiders attended this prestigious event, marking a day of celebration, recognition, and philanthropy.

The day began with a luxurious Champagne Reception in the River Room, setting the tone for an afternoon of elegance and camaraderie. Guests then moved to the exquisite Lancaster Room, where they enjoyed a sumptuous three-course lunch amidst a stunning setting.

COPRA Chairman Sam Nesbitt warmly welcomed an illustrious array of industry leaders, including buyers from the UK's top retailers such as Harrods, Harvey Nichols, Fenwick, QVC, Escentual, Next Beauty, and SPACE NK. The guest list also boasted representatives from renowned beauty brands like Chanel, Estée Lauder, Charlotte Tilbury, and LVMH, to name just a few.

The Chairman was thrilled to present a total of 22 prestigious awards recognising the best of the best in the beauty industry, announcing 63 outstanding nominees, culminating in 22 exceptional winners.

This celebration of excellence brought together influential industry insiders, top retailers, and leading beauty brands, all united in their commitment to innovation and quality. The COPRA AWARDS continue to set the standard for excellence in the beauty sector, showcasing the incredible talent and dedication that drives the industry forward.

Congratulations to all the nominees and winners for their remarkable achievements and contributions to the beauty world. Your hard work and creativity continue to inspire us all.

A highlight of the afternoon was the presentation of the Retail Consultant of the Year Awards. The awards were supported by the esteemed ambassador, Sharron Lowe, who delivered a heartfelt welcome and congratulations to all the winners, celebrating their exceptional contributions to the industry.

Adding to the day's success, COPRA proudly announced the raising of over £4,000 through its 'small but perfectly formed' raffle, benefiting its nominated charity, 'Look Good Feel Better'. This organisation is dedicated to helping men, women, and teenagers face Cancer with confidence, making a meaningful impact on many lives.

COPRA extends its deepest gratitude to all the sponsors, supporters, and guests who made this event a remarkable success. Your support not only celebrated this year's award winners but also contributed to a noble cause.

Mark your calendars for the next major event on the beauty industry's social scene: the COPRA Ball. Scheduled for November 7th at the iconic Royal Lancaster Hotel in Hyde Park, London, this event promises to be an unforgettable evening of glamour and celebration.
